

《日本意图干预中国 国防部强硬回击日本白皮书》

导读:本周二，日本发布了新版《防卫白皮书》，该文件对中国的国防以及中国在东海、南海的活动妄加指责，罔顾事实，强迫中国承认南海仲裁庭裁决，支持菲律宾在南海“非法”主权声明，对此，中国国防部给与了强硬回击。

China restated its warning to Japan and some countries outside the South China Sea of interfering in the disputed waters and destabilizing the region, after the Japanese government approved a defense white paper on Tuesday.

On the South China Sea issue, Japan tried its best to complicate the situation by driving a wedge between China and countries involved in the dispute for its own gain, Wu Qian, a spokesperson for the Ministry of National Defense, said on Tuesday.

??

"We would like to inform Japan that freedom of navigation in the South China Sea has not been disrupted. Japan and other outsiders are interfering in the issue and harming regional peace and stability," Wu said.

Experts said they believe the white paper highlights Japan's continuing justification of its own militarization and attempt to draw support for the constitutional amendment.

Japan devoted 30 pages of the 480-page document on China's national defense and normal and legal maritime activities in the East and South China seas, the Xinhua News Agency reported on Tuesday.

The document said China's reclamation on the islands and reefs in the South China Sea is threatening regional security, and Japan is seriously concerned about it, China News Service reported.

Japan's cabinet is trying to prove that China is unilaterally changing the situation and threatening regional and Japanese security, Lü Yaodong, director of the Institute of Japanese Studies at the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, told the Global Times.

Since Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe is preparing to have Article 9 of the country's constitution amended, which states that the Japanese people forever renounce war as a sovereign right of the nation, hyping the "China threat" can provide excuses for the constitutional amendment, otherwise Japan's militarization is unconstitutional, Lü said.

Dismissing the "China threat" as groundless, Lü stressed that China's military development is reasonable, and that China is making great efforts to resort to peaceful means to settle disputes.

The white paper comes after an arbitral tribunal, with judges mostly picked by Shunji Yanai, a Japanese right-winger, issued a "biased and illegal ruling" on the South China Sea dispute on July 12. China has dismissed the ruling as "null and void with no binding force."
