A Brazilian tattoo artist offers free body art so victims of domestic violence can cover their scars

????????????????????????????????

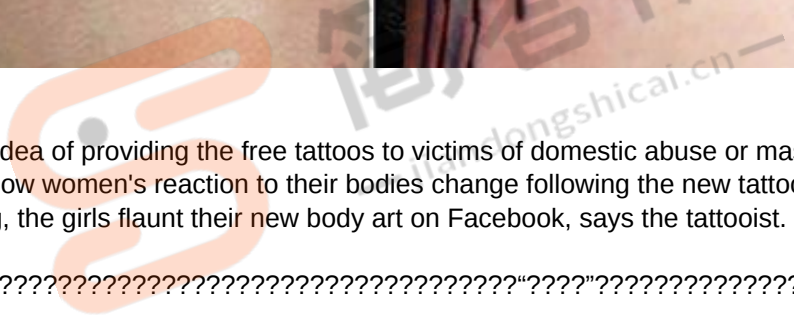

Flavia Carvalho began her project 'A Pele da Flor', which means 'The Skin of the Flower', in Curitiba, Brazil, to turn horrific mementos into "self-esteem boosters". Since then her art has covered up wounds from bullets, beatings, stabbings and even mastectomies. The service is one 100% - the only 'cost' is choosing the tattoo.
