

《巴勒斯坦女子引爆炸弹炸伤警员》

A Palestinian woman set off a bomb after being pulled over by Israeli police near a Jewish settlement in the occupied West Bank. The woman and an officer were injured in the blast. Police initially said the woman had been killed, but later reported she was wounded and in critical condition.

Meanwhile, Israeli airstrikes in Gaza have killed a pregnant Palestinian mother and her daughter. The two were killed when their house in the northern Gaza Strip sector was demolished by the Israeli attack. Three others remain trapped under the rubble.

Israel says it targeted two Hamas weapon manufacturing facilities in response to rockets fired into Israel on Saturday.
