《因为听歌被歧视是什么感觉？》

据说，现在的年轻人见面社交的时候不问你是哪个学校毕业的、学什么专业的，而是问你都听啥歌、上啥网站、玩啥游戏。似乎，这样能更容易找到有共同爱好的朋友。如果你听的歌被对方很不齿，那你们估计是做不了朋友了。

Playlistism means judging a person based on what songs are on the playlist of his or her digital music player, computer or iTunes music library.

??????????????????????iTunes???????????????

Playlistism is discrimination based not on race, sex or religion, but on someone's terrible taste in music.

??

With "shared music" feature available on many music apps, one can browse the various music libraries of the co-workers or classmates in the network and requires awkward explanation of why you have "that song."

??????????“??”??“???”?

Several recent studies in the US have shown that these lists are not only ‘the soundtracks of our lives', but also reasonably reliable personality barometers used to suss out dating partners, job applicants and political candidates.

??????????????????????“???????”??

简答网 —jiandongshicai.cn—